

Tee it up for the Troops, Inc.

Carl F. Adams

A 20 year U.S. Air Force veteran and an Engineering Director for Seagate Technology, LLC, Carl F. Adams joined the Tee It Up For The Troops Board of Directors in 2009, where he is currently serving as the Secretary of the Board.

In 1978 Carl enlisted into the U.S. Air Force where he served as a Crew Chief and Flight Engineer on EC/WC135 aircraft where he accumulated over 1300 hours of flight time. He then entered the Air Force Institute of Technology program where in 1988 he graduated with a Master and Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering from the University of Oklahoma. He has also earned a Master of Business Administration from Oklahoma City University in 2002. He received his commission at the Air Force Officer Training School in 1986 and served as a Test Program Manager and Research & Design Engineer on the Peacekeeper ICBM program. He exited active duty in 1992 but after a nine year gap he entered the U.S. Air Force Reserves where he served as a Senior Mechanical Engineer and Logistician. He retired after a total of 20 years of service as a Major in 2007.

In his professional life, Carl has worked at Seagate Technology, LLC since 1996 and he currently serves as an Engineering Director on new disc drive programs.

Carl joined the Tee It Up For The Troops Board of Directors in 2009 after volunteering for the organization for three years. He currently lives in Lakeville, Minnesota with his wife Karen and his daughter Morgan and son Blake.
