

Tee it up for the Troops, Inc.

James “JB” Ball

JB is Vice President of BC & I Wealth Management and has been employed in the financial services business for over 24 years. He is the Founder and Past President of Tee It Up For The Troops, an organization which was conceived in 2005. JB continues to serve as Ambassador for the St. Jude’s Children’s Research Hospital, something he has been involved with for over 10 years.

He is married to his wife Laurie for 29 years and they have three children, Tyler, Chas and Ellen. JB is a proud son of a soldier, brother of a soldier, friend of a soldier and father of a soldier--his motivation and passion for serving our troops.
